Women in Architecture Symposium comes to the North!

12/06/2017, by Lisa Raynes, in how to be an architect (<http://www.prideroad.co.uk/category/how-to-be-an-architect/>) | Talks & Events (<http://www.prideroad.co.uk/category/talks-events/>), 0 comments

(<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/women-in-architecture-tickets-34320556709>) Huddersfield School of Architecture are hosting their first Symposium on Women in Architecture on Wednesday 14th June 17

Following on from a very successful 'Women in Architecture' workshop in March 2017, HudSocArch – with RIBA Yorkshire – host a subsequent event on emergent themes within the area. Themes include sustaining a career, effective workplace strategies, the benefits of parity in broader society and proactive engagement.

This free event aims for an open discussion about a wide range of experiences in practice and aspirations for fairer opportunities with a keynote from Jane Duncan, President of RIBA.

Speakers include:

- Pride Road's Lisa Raynes
- Women in Construction's Val Garret and Joan Rutherford
- Joint Chair Manchester Women's Design Group, Joan Rutherford MRTPI
- University of Huddersfield's Professor Dilanthi Amaratunga, FRGS, FRICS talking about 'Raising your Profile: How to let others know you are doing Ok !!'
- Jane Duncan, President, RIBA
